Serpentfire Yoga for Healing Summary

Healing is our birthright, and we can learn to do it. Serpentfire Yoga for Healing invites you to discover the magic in you at the intersection of yoga, shamanism, vibrational medicine, energy healing, gnosis, and the soul's creativity. A multi-disciplinary and multi-dimensional system for gentle healing and transformation for the healer and the client, Serpentfire Yoga for Healing is an advanced wisdom school offered in a flexible five-module program over 30 months. If you are a yoga teacher or student, an energy healer or teacher, an artist or creative, a parent or self-healer, or a holistic nurse or massage therapist, this study may call you.

Ancient temples, like Delphi, offered training and community for healers, priestesses, spiritual messengers, alchemists, and oracles. Development focused on the "Serpentfire," the western name for kundalini—the Feminine spiral energy which awakens, rises, and energizes our sacred gifts. Similarly, Serpentfire Yoga for Healing is an alchemical yoga based on awakening the kundalini, directing and controlling the energy for healing, and creating nature spirit medicines. The program offers both ascension and descension of the serpentine energies for healing which activate different dimensions of conscious wholeness.

Modules offer energy healing using your hands, intuition, telepathic healing, tel-homeopathic flower essence therapy, vocal sound healing, and Serpentfire Yoga exercises, which all activate the body's ability to self-heal. Students may take one, several or all modules for personal growth or for professional skill development.

The benefits of Serpentfire Yoga for Healing for the student include:

- Learn to heal self and others with hands, thought, voice, and nature, and weave these into a single session.
- Learn to think and perceive vibrationally; consciously shift your brain pattern from ordinary or daily mind (beta) to extraordinary/clairvoyant (alpha) mind.
- Gain calm confidence in your healing and self-healing abilities.
- Receive loving and gentle clairvoyant mentoring for personal transformation.
- Learn to communicate with the nature devas; receive spiritual medicine from them.
- Develop more positive attitudes and clear inner direction.
- Find greater strength of will and focus.
- Create closer relationship with the Divine within you and the One in All.

Will you join us? Each of the five Serpentfire Yoga for Healing modules includes an interactive weekend of training in person, private mentoring sessions with Genai in person or by phone to help identify your strengths and challenges and to deepen your practice, and monthly group meditation phone calls to promote community and continue momentum for growth. This unique opportunity offers instruction and close relationship with Genai, the founding teacher. Download the detailed Syllabus at www.AllOnePeace.com for more information.
